

Rockstars and Angles

Flying Fox Films shot this video for Sydney and LA based jeans and t-shirt brand Rockstars &Angels. Locomotive rhythm and rich vocals are painted into a monochromatic moving portrait.

Sexy and attractive, our work with Rockstars &Angels is a highlight of our portfolio. Intuitive and delicate fashion and underwater cinematography by Astrid Salomon and Franziska Link truly capture the lustrous emotion of the brand lifestyle. Director Verena Herzog successfully illustrates the brand message, leaving the viewer with memorable imagery.
